

ALAN C. BATES SCHOLARSHIP

Alan Bates, DO – A Heart of Service

Throughout Dr. Bates' decades of public service, he maintained his family medical practice for more than 30 years, building relationships with generations of families and becoming a hero to those in need. Bates Scholars will display Dr. Bates' commitment to patient-centered care and better health, setting the ultimate example of what a doctor who truly cares can do.

Throughout his decades of public service, he maintained his family medical practice for more than 30 years, building relationships with generations of families and becoming a hero to those in need. Bates was also a master fly fisherman, gaining great joy in teaching the art to close friends, children, and grandchildren.
